Best Picnic Ever

Good family, good friends, good food, gliders and candy falling from the sky. Does it get any better than that? Not sure anyone ever attempted to create an awesome picnic, it just turned out to be a perfect storm when all things came together perfectly. The wives were happy because the children were kept entertained. Doug brought the gliders, while Dan and Gary bomb dropped a bunch of candy. My wife was so happy that she actually stood by me for a few minutes while I flew. Here are a few pictures. Gary has better pictures on the website.

Fun on Floats!

Please join us for a fun fly off the water at the Roush Lake (Huntington Reservoir) beach on Saturday, September 19th, beginning at 9:00 AM to ? (early afternoon?).

Enter the Little Turtle State Recreation Area off Indiana 5 south of Huntington (about 3/4 mile south of the dam). Be prepared to pay park admission ($5.00/vehicle for Indiana residents). Park in the lot near the beach. We will be at the west end of the beach (toward the dam) and will be allowed only a couple of vehicles on the beach for transporting your gear.
